is/are mandated in the matter of concerning the following matters in particular:

The holder(s) of the mandate is/are obligated to execute this mandate diligently in the interests of the client.

The holder(s) of the mandate is/are entitled, at his/her/their discretion, to seek assistance from attorneys or employees of his/her/their law firm in executing the mandate. After advance notice to the client, the holder(s) of the mandate is/are entitled to consult outside consultants, domestic and foreign corresponding attorneys, experts, and other outside support personnel to the extent that he/she/they deem(s) it useful or necessary.

In order to represent the client with respect to third parties, the holder(s) of the mandate require(s) a written power of attorney. The text of power of attorney shall be used for that purpose. He/She/They shall, however, utilize said power of attorney only to the extent necessary for the execution of this mandate. Powers of attorney issued in connection with this mandate shall be limited to the pursuit of this mandate: they shall not grant any rights beyond those afforded by this mandate.

The client may terminate this mandate and any power of attorney issued on the basis thereof at any time. The holder(s) of the mandate also have the right to terminate the mandate. A termination may give rise to claims if made at an inappropriate time.

The client shall be responsible for the payment of fees or costs by third parties, government authorities, and/or courts.

The client can at any time demand an invoice statement or other information pertaining to fees owed, expenses incurred and/or concerning the status of execution of the mandate.

The client also mandates the holder(s) of this mandate to attend to the collection of any amounts awarded in the case. Furthermore, the client assigns to the holder(s) of the mandate any court-warded compensation for expenses, up to the amount of his claims, by way of payment.

The holder(s) of the mandate is/are entitled, without prior notice, to destroy the reference files ten years after settlement of the case.

Fee

The client is obligated to pay the fee and all expenses of the holder(s) of this mandate pursuant to the following stipulation:

Hourly fee
